

Questions for Individuals and Small Groups – Mark 5.21-34

- To the crowd the woman was an unclean outcast, but to Jesus she was a woman of value - a precious daughter. How do you treat other people who are not like you?
- Who do you know who needs to experience Jesus' transformative healing power today?
- What injustices do you see around you locally, nationally and even internationally? What part is God calling you to play in challenging these?
