

Act of Remembrance

Leader: They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old.

Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.

Response: We will remember them.

THE SILENCE

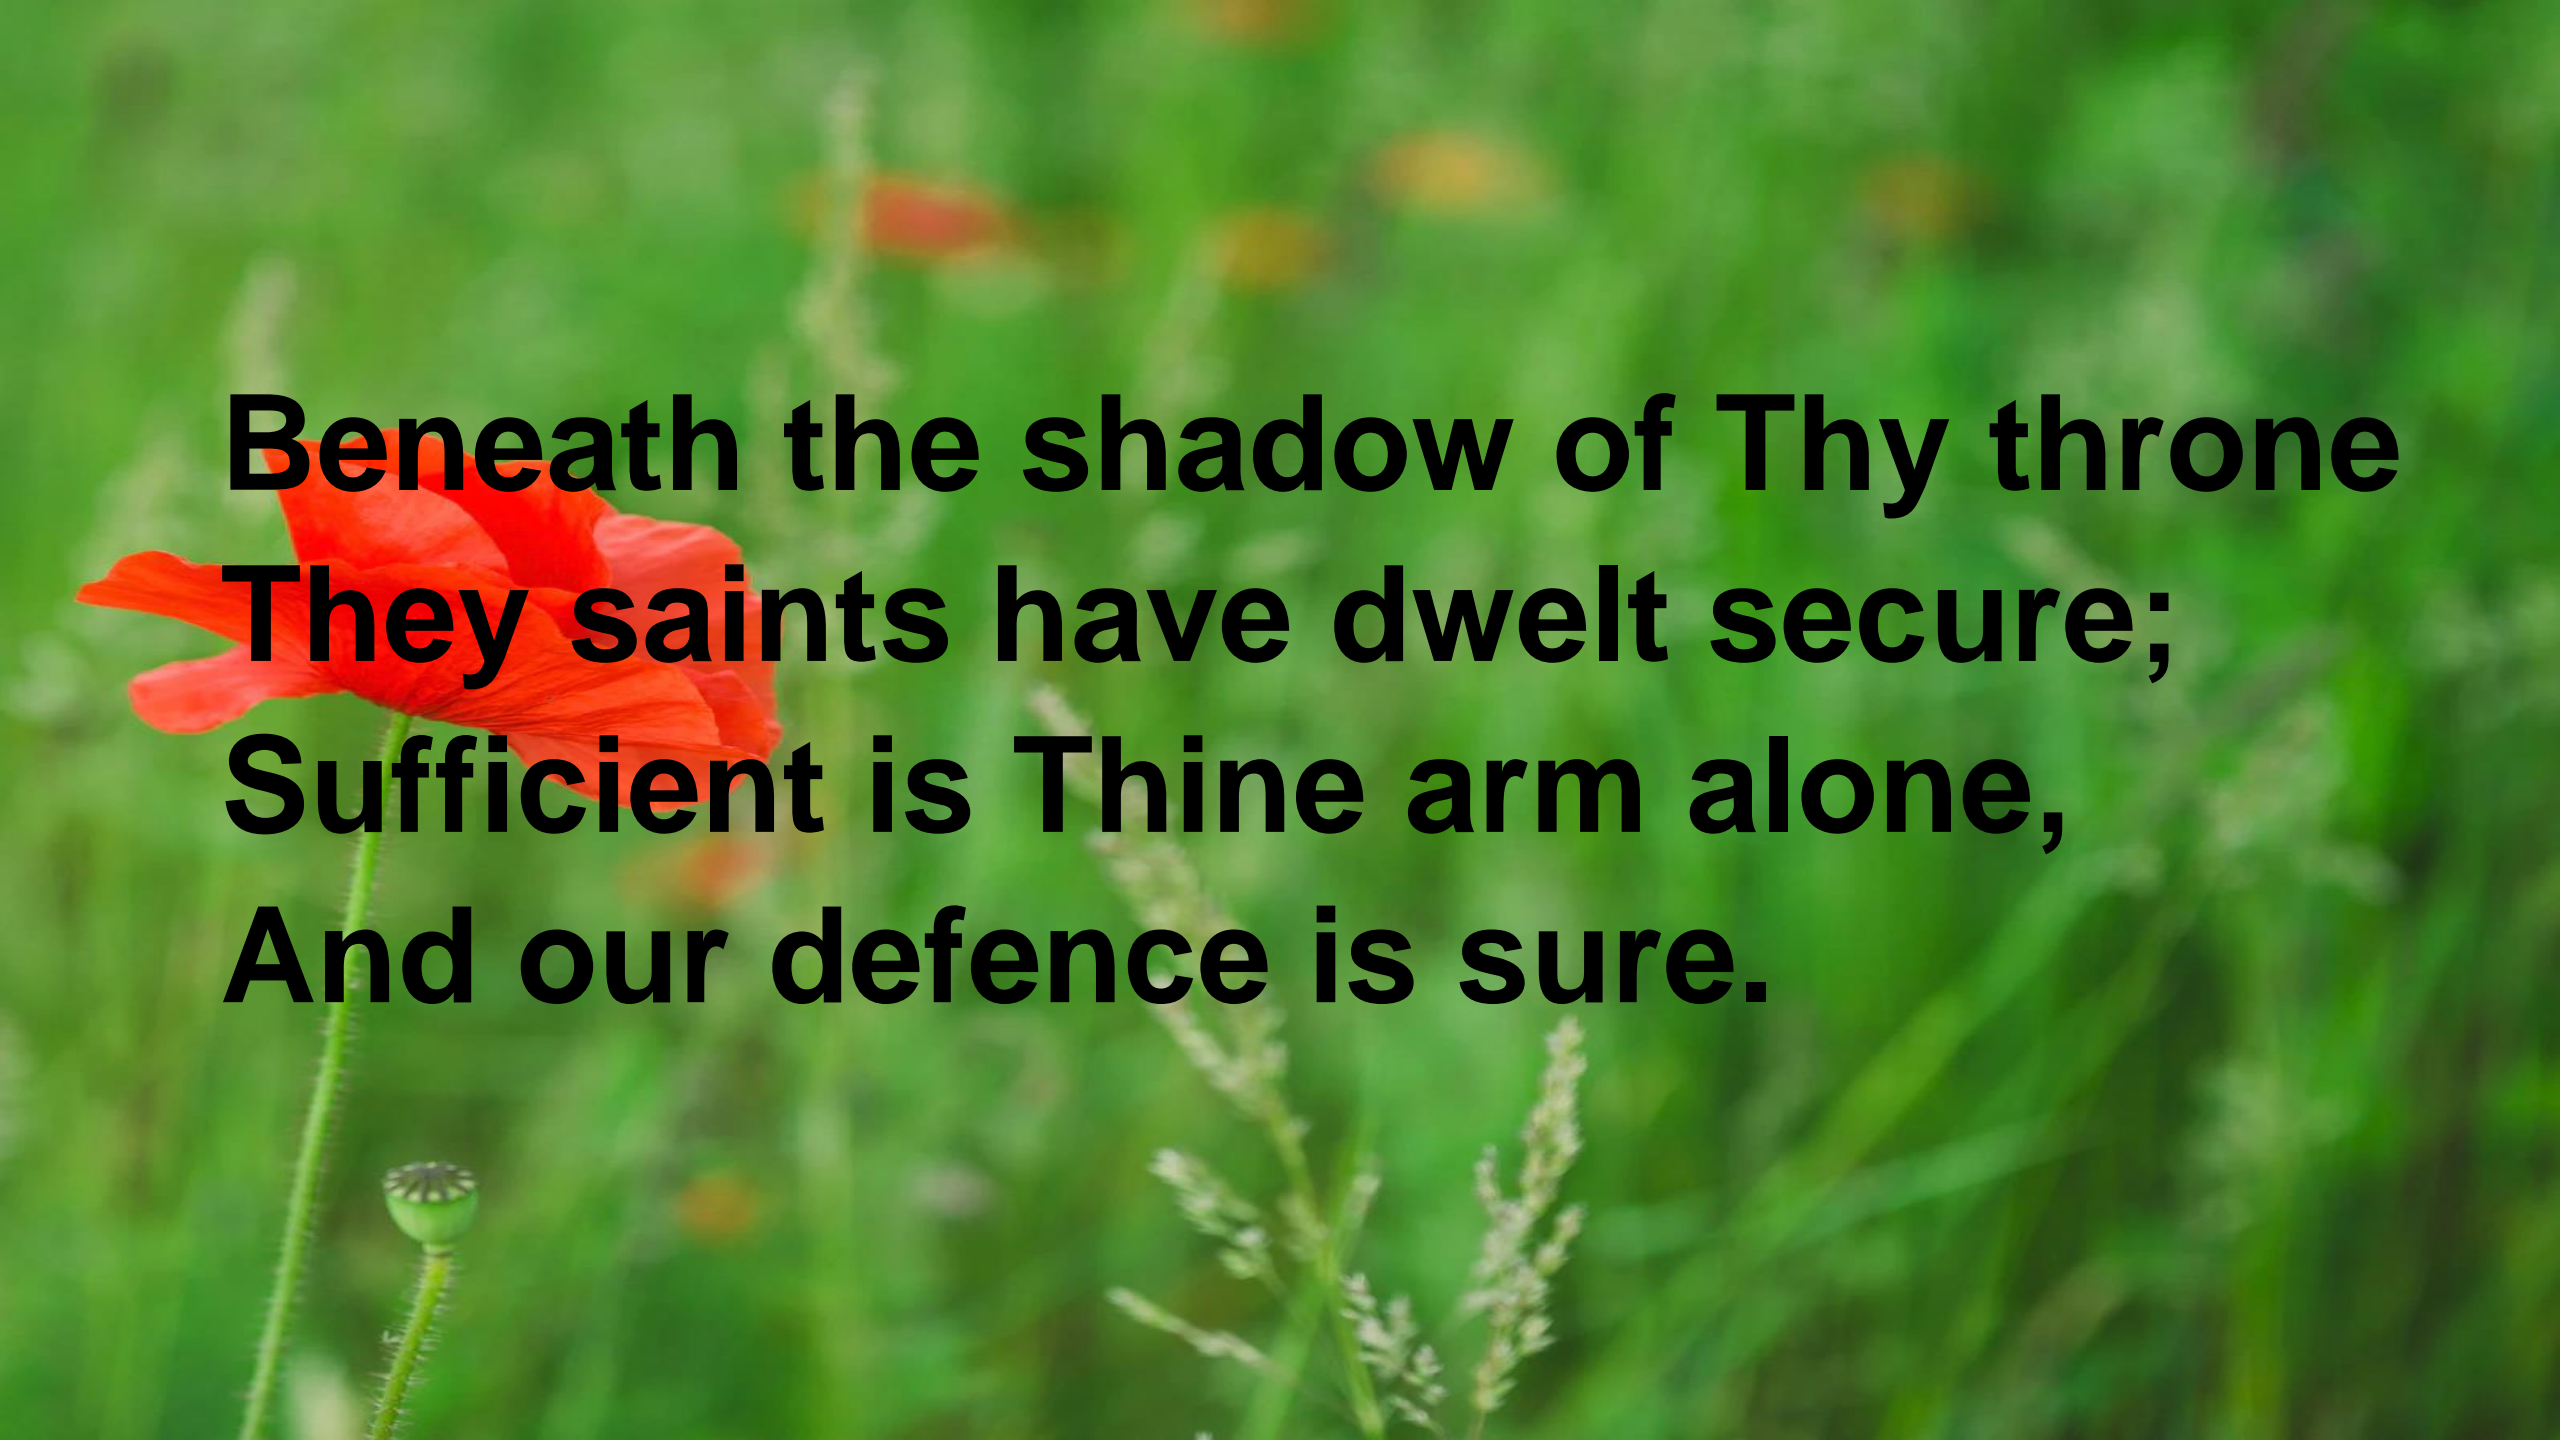

Questions for individuals and groups

Read again John chapter 15 verses 9 to 17

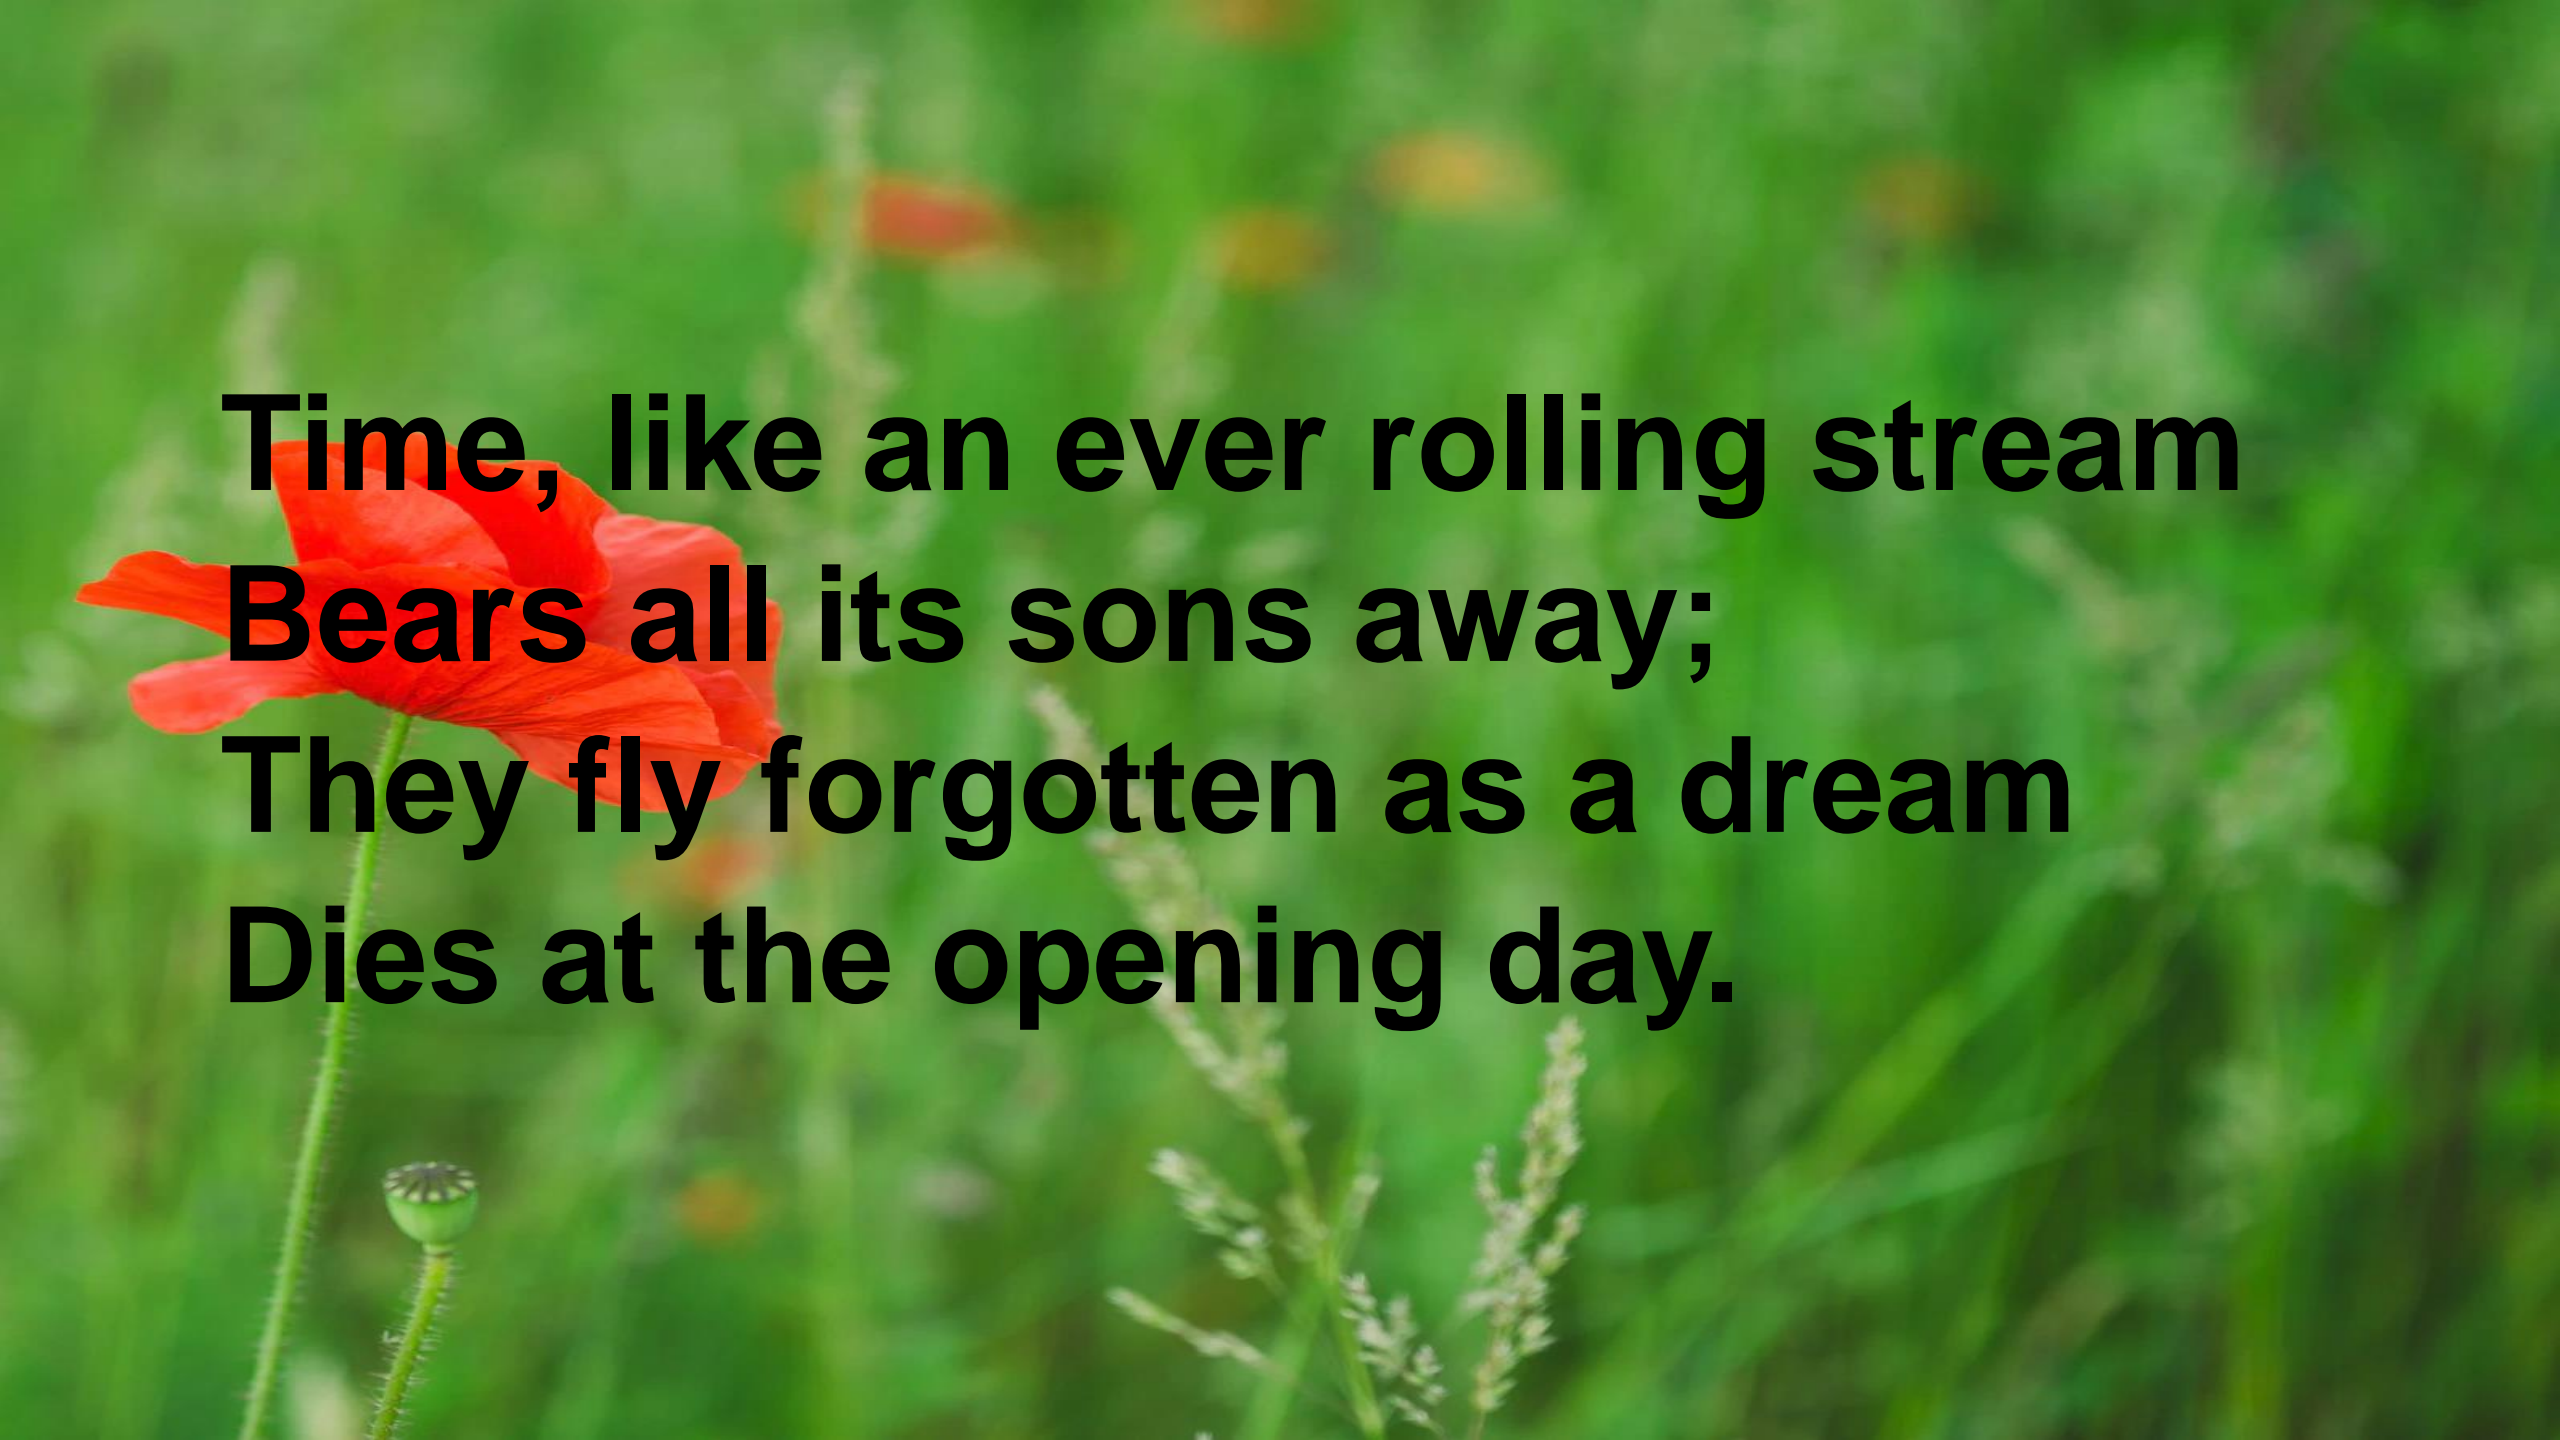

- What examples come to your mind of someone who has shown you or others the self-giving love Jesus speaks of?
- Self-giving love is costly. Are there times when you find it hard to do? For example when it's not appreciated?
- Reflect: Who might God be calling you to show self-giving love towards at the moment?
- Spend some time praying for situations where sacrificial love and leadership is needed at this time.

A vibrant red poppy flower is the central focus, partially obscured by the text. The background is a lush, green field with various plants and grasses, some in focus and some blurred. The lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

A vibrant red poppy flower is the central focus, partially obscured by the text. The background is a lush, green field of grass and other plants, with some blurred flowers in the distance. The lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day.

Beneath the shadow of Thy throne
They saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Time, like an ever rolling stream
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard
while troubles last,
And our eternal home.