

Questions for Individuals and Groups:

Read again Matthew chapter 21 verses 1 to 16:

- If you had stood in that crowd on that day what would your thoughts have been?
- What are the things that frustrate you and occupy your thoughts and prayers? Where in the world would you like God to act? Knowing what you now know about Jesus' kingdom, how might this influence the way you pray for these situations?
- What is it that you personally would like to be liberated from?
- Reflect upon the account of the turning of the tables in the Temple. Have you ever been so angry at an injustice that you acted? What did you do?
- What about now? Are there things you feel angry about? What could you do about it?
